- Market shaping
- Empowerment and involvement
- Providing the LA perspective
- Supporting change
- Use of our regional structures
- Influence and expertise in the wider arena

What are we trying to achieve?

The Centre for Welfare Reform identified Seven keys to citizenship that combine to show what a full life looks like.

From “Serviceland” to the real world

Transforming our market

- Knowing how to have the right services in the right place at the right time
- Being clear about disinvestment and undesirable activity
- Choice for people who have personal budgets
- Strong and confident leadership across the TCP

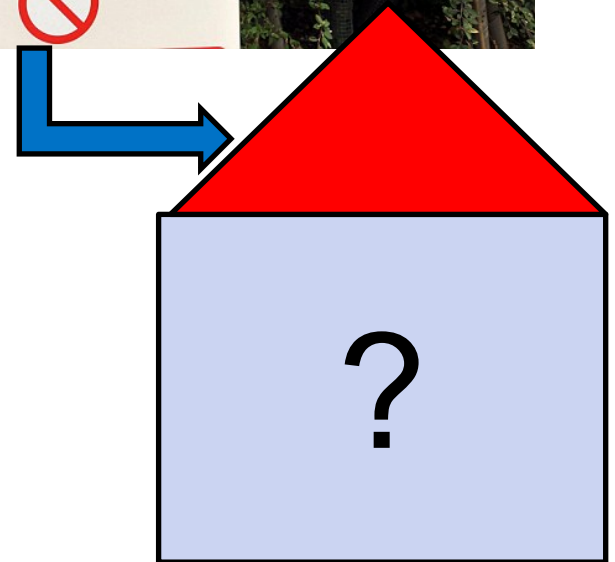

Tools to help

- Redesigning specifications
- Incentivising “Progression”
- Better data to create good information
- Mature and trusting relationships with providers
- Use of contingency funding (Draft NICE guidance)
- Use of natural supports and communities
- Support from wider council function and the “system”

Importance of quality

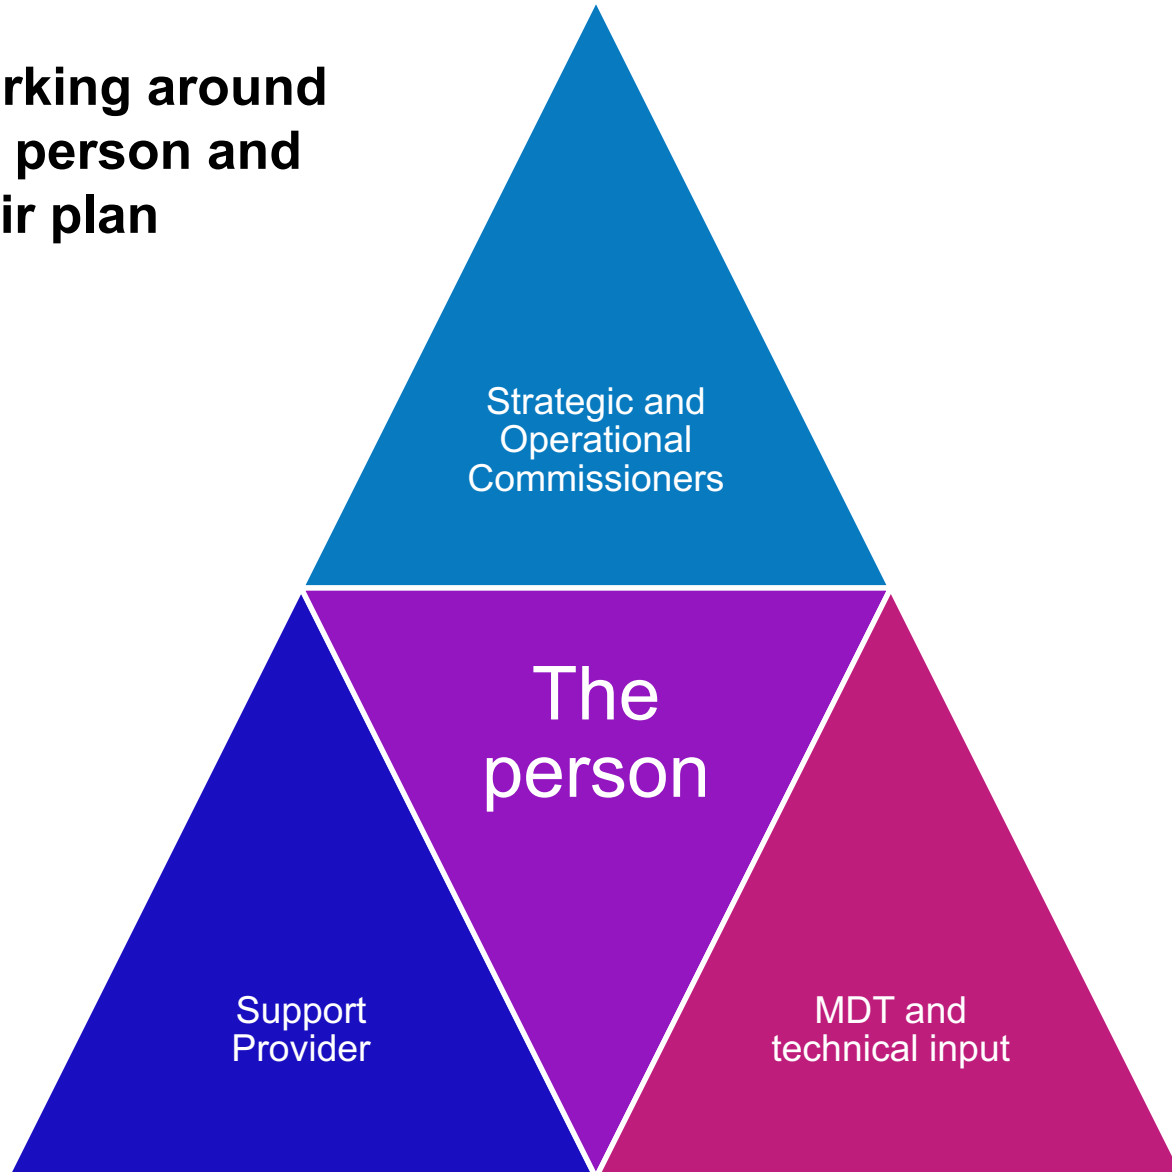

- Readmission rates
- Safeguarding
- Sustainability of the programme
- Allows for longer term savings through person centred progression

Quality work- Key principles

- Involvement of people who have a learning disability and/or autism and their families in the work.(workshops, empowerment group Ask ,listen, do project)
- Personalised delivery, in line with BRS
- Commissioning that also supports choice for people who have their own budgets
- Utilising “Making safeguarding personal”
- Integrating the “Quality Matters” priorities

Working around the person and their plan

The support offer

- Regional advisor posts (LGA)
- Housing support posts (NHSE)
- Formation of Virtual teams to support TCPs
- Finance advice
- Provision of information (data, toolkit)
- IPC Oxford Brookes Market shaping action learning sets
- Sector led offer (peer review)
- Communication links

Support activity

- Clear prioritised quality workplan developed through stakeholder feedback (Dec 2017)
- Information to support commissioning, guide / toolkit, PQQ and core specification for community services-based on commissioning for outcomes and the progression model

Support activity

- Exploring Sector led improvement (Peer review, tailored around Transforming Care)
- Market shaping action learning sets (Oxford Brookes)
- Identifying opportunities for large scale strategic support such as ADASS regional commissioning approaches.
